

RoHS DECLARATION OF CONFORMITY

Dear Customer,

We would like to inform you that COTHERM is informed of European Directive and all associated modifications limiting the usage of several hazardous substances for electric and electronic equipment.

Based on information provided by suppliers and subcontractors and their knowledge of the applicable standards for COTHERM products, our company hereby declares:

All COTHERM products are compliant with RoHS regulation 2011/65/EU and 2015/863/EU.
